

Again

I learned to live without you
It's been so long
Remember so few moments so far away
Now i know the beauty of those days
In your eyes i found the only place
I would dream to be again

No regrets , looking back
Just listen to your heart
No fear looking at life and smiling at me

People can change but never
Their way to love
Remember so few moments so far away
Now we know few things are forever
Let's believe we just still have the choice
To be in love each day again
